

William & Kimberly

About US

Hello! We are William and Kimberly from Arkansas, living in a cozy rural community with our daughter Adaline. William works as a Pediatric Occupational Therapist and Pastor, while Kimberly is an Accountant. We are empathetic, organized, friendly, intelligent, creative, loyal, and resourceful. Our daughter is longing for a little sister to share her joys and create everlasting memories together. Adoption is the perfect pathway for us to fulfill our desire of completing our family and providing a loving home to a child. We believe that every child deserves a stable, nurturing environment where they can thrive and blossom into their full potential. In our free time, we love immersing ourselves in books, volunteering in our community, watching our favorite TV shows and movies, playing video games, exercising, traveling, and cherishing moments with our loved ones. After experiencing severe preclampsia during Kim's last pregnancy, choosing adoption was an easy decision. Despite wanting two children, health concerns make a second pregnancy a risky endeavor.

Get to Know Us

We're William and Kimberly, and we've been building a life together for 18 years now. Our story began at a high school football game, where we met and quickly connected. For the next seven years, we navigated a long-distance relationship while both working toward our dreams—William earning his master's degree in occupational therapy and Kimberly achieving her master's in accounting. Through it all, our relationship grew stronger, and once we were married, we focused on building a solid foundation for our family by paying off debts and preparing for the future.

Our Extended Family

We are incredibly fortunate to live close to both sides of our family, which allows us to maintain strong, supportive connections with our loved ones. William's parents live just 10 minutes away in a neighboring town, and we see them regularly, sharing meals and catching up on life. His younger brother, Bo, lives about 45 minutes away, and we reconnect at family events and gatherings.

Our Pets

Living in rural Arkansas, we've had the privilege of caring for many animals over the years. Stray dogs and cats are common in our area, and we've made it a mission to ensure they're spayed, neutered, vaccinated, and, when possible, rehomed with loving families. While many of these animals eventually find new homes, a few have found their forever home with us, becoming cherished members of our family.

Our Home

Our Home Our home is a charming piece of history with deep family roots. Built nearly 75 years ago by Kimberly's great-grandfather, it sits just off Main Street, blending small-town charm with the warmth of generations past. At approximately 975 square feet, it's a cozy space with two bedrooms, one bathroom, and a small yet inviting living room, dining room, and kitchen. The utility room in the back serves as a practical extension of our home, keeping things organized and functional. What truly makes it special, though, is the sense of tranquility and belonging that fills every corner.

Vacations

Vacations Family vacations are an important tradition for us, offering a chance to make lasting memories and enjoy quality time together. We aim to take at least one big vacation every year, exploring new places and creating adventures as a family. Over the years, we've visited Florida, Boston, and the Great Wolf Lodge in Dallas, where Adaline loved the exciting activities designed just for kids. While the pandemic made traveling more challenging when she was younger, we're now working on establishing this tradition, with dreams of future trips to Yellowstone, Houston, Disney World, or the Smoky Mountains.

Holidays

Holiday's are a special time for our family, filled with love, traditions, and togetherness. We celebrate all the traditional holidays, including Valentine's Day, Easter, Memorial Day, the Fourth of July, Labor Day, Halloween, Thanksgiving, and Christmas. Kimberly has a real passion for decorating, not just for each holiday but for the changing seasons as well. Her attention to detail fills our home with charm and warmth, making every celebration feel magical. Christmas is by far the biggest event in our household, with festive decorations, family gatherings, and cherished traditions that create a sense of wonder for all of us.

Our Churches

Our Christian faith is the foundation of everything we are and do as a family.

Both of us were raised in loving, faith-filled homes—Kimberly by a Presbyterian minister and William in a community deeply rooted in faith. Our journey together as a couple has been closely intertwined with our faith, and a few months before we married, William stepped in to preach at a local church until they could find a full-time pastor. That temporary role grew into a calling, and 11 years later, he is the full-time ordained minister of the church, as well as the interim pastor at the church Kimberly grew up in, just down the road from our home.

Our Daughter

Our 7-year-old daughter, Adaline, is the heart and soul of our family. She lights up every room she enters with her warmth, kindness, and joyful spirit. Adaline has one of the sweetest and most compassionate hearts we've ever known—she prays every time she sees an ambulance, lovingly cares for every animal she encounters, and even gets teary-eyed at the thought of a squash bug's fate. Her empathy and love for others shine through in everything she does.

Thank you
